NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

The New-York Tribune, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862 is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word Republican. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fatally hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust in its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in other times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust to result in the final and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be gained than through the regular columns of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

Army Correspondence

Newberne, N. C., Mar. 14, '63.

Dear Friends: I take the present opportunity of dropping you a few lines to let you know that I am still in the land of the living, although we have had an exciting day. This is the anniversary of the taking of Newberne. We captured it this day one year ago. We intended having a review to day, of all the troops, in commemoration thereof, but on yesterday they attacked our pickets on the Trent road, about eight miles from here.—An orderly came in post-haste for reenforcements. He did not spare horse flesh, as the horse dropped dead a few minutes after he got in. Then you ought to have seen our cavalry going out; they went as fast as their horses could go. It was an exciting sight. We sent out all our cavalry, four regiments of infantry, and two batteries of artillery, and we stopped them for the time being; but we were waked up this morning by the sound of artillery. It turned out that another force had attacked one of our regiments on the opposite side of Neuse river. You must know, to understand me, that we have one of our Brigades stationed over the river where they are fortified; it is the 92d New York. The rebels opened on them this morning, with sixteen pieces of artillery, and completely riddled their camp, and strange to say, only three were wounded. The rebels sent in a flag of truce to Col. Anderson, commanding, to surrender the point, and the answer he sent back was, "I cannot see the point." They gave him five minutes to surrender, but he could not "see the point," and they opened on them again; and after while they sent in another flag of truce, giving him a half hour; but it was no go. By this time the gunboats had got up in range and opened out. It was very exciting. I stood on the beach and saw it all. I felt sorry for our poor fellows over there, but could not get over to help them. I have a good many friends in the regiment. It was regular cannonading until noon. By that time we had got the 85th New York over in flats to reinforce them. We could see the "rebs" quite plain; but finally they fell back. We are looking for an attack to-night, and God only knows the result; but we have God on our side, and He will's everything for his own good. At the time the 92d was fighting they attacked us on the Trent road, and there was some sharp cannonading; but I guess it did not amount to much, although I did not hear the result.

The 101st and 103d Pa. regiments have been out on a scout thro' Hyde county. They have been gone nine days, and just returned this evening. They did not have any fighting, but they brought in eleven prisoners; they captured seventy nine in all, taking everything they came across, and destroyed everything they could not bring along with them. Adjutant Stewart, the Ass't. Adj't. Gen., was along, and brought a pair of nice ponies; our regiment brought in a thousand hams. I saw a Lieutenant this evening who was on this expedition; he told me they had a train of carts, wagons, oxen, horses and mules over a mile long, and loaded with everything imaginable. The boys all appear in good spirits, and are ready and willing to meet the rebels at any time.

We may have some fun to-night, and I will not close my letter until to-morrow, as I may have some news to write you. Our General, Wessell, is not here; he has gone to New York to attend the funeral of his wife. O, how I wish he was here, as our boys all have the utmost confidence in him. But Gen. Foster is a good General, and one that knows all the country. They expected to catch us napping, as a good part of our force has been sent to Charleston to reinforce them there; but we may have fighting to-morrow (Sunday). The "rebs" always take that day to fight on. If they come we will have to meet them. We are making all preparation to-night to give them "fits." There was a deserter came in the side which the 92d is on, and he says the regiment was attacked by 10,000 men, and that little regiment of only 350 kept them at bay until the gunboats got ready to help them.

I saw a man who was over there, and he told me that their camp was completely riddled. It is a miracle how any of them escaped. The Adjutant's tent has seven cannon shot and more than five hundred grape-shot; but they stuck to their post, and would not surrender, although they had a large force to contend with. The gunboats are now laying in the stream in front of them, ready to open upon them. The deserter that came in says that he saw twenty-five dead rebels and saw several wounded. They bursted one of their cannon—a twenty pounder—not more than three hundred yards from the breast works of the 92d; so you can see that they were pretty close upon them. * * *

Sunday Morning, March 15.

I again commence my letter to let you know that all is quiet while I now write—10 o'clock. I saw several men of the 92d, who were participants in the engagement yesterday, and one of them heard the officers report that they had only two men wounded in yesterday's fight, but the day before they had one killed and one wounded; he told me that the Colonel's quarters had one hundred and sixty shots thro' it. Gen. Foster gives the boys great credit for holding out when there was such an overwhelming force against them. Gen Pettigrew had command of the rebels; we have had him to contend against in nearly every engagement we have been in. He sent a flag of truce in to Col. Anderson, asking him to surrender and save the effusion of blood. He wrote on the back of the order that he "could not see the point," as he belonged to Wessel's Brigade, and they never surrendered. He said they might come and take him, but surrender was not in his dictionary. That's the stuff Wessel's Brigade is composed of. There is not many of us, it is true; but what is left are good. Gen. Pettigrew would rather capture one regiment of our Brigade than a whole Brigade of any other. Well may Gen. Foster be proud of us, as he has never found us wanting. Whenever called upon we are there, and when "Old Billy" Wessel, as the boys call him, takes the lead, the air resounds with cheers, and when we have to fight he is always with us. * * *

Well, how are the "copperheads" in your county? I see you have some of them there. Well, those that are not for us are against us, and the sooner they are rooted out the better. How do you like the power that has been given the President? He now has whole control of all these United States, and these same "copperheads" will have to look out. It is a disgrace to any American Congress to have such men as Vallandigham and several others in it.

I have not been over to the regiment since its return, but will go over this afternoon, providing nothing turns up to hinder me. While I write, the Church Bells are ringing—as you must know we have some Churches here.—The Stars and Stripes were raised over the Churches yesterday.

I have just learned that George Fetterman has resigned and is going home to-day. He is a son of N. P. Fetterman, of Pittsburg. He was a Lieutenant in our regiment. Sam'l. Lawrence has resigned also, and is going home, at least I have been so informed.

Your Son,
William Hall.

PATRIOTISM OF THE SOLDIER.

The Army Against the Copperheads.

Below we give a series of resolutions adopted by the soldiers of our own and other loyal States. These manifestations of patriotic loyalty are the more pleasing and must become the more potential, because they spring from men who are suffering all the deprivations and dangers of a camp life and a field struggle, in defence of their country. The resolutions thus adopted, need neither approval or recommendation at our hands. They embody the truth in its majesty, and therefore appeal to the judgment of all true patriots:

A VOICE FROM THE 149TH PA.—BUCKTAILS—ENCAMPED NEAR BELLE PLAIN, VA.

Whereas, There is being nourished and encouraged, among a certain class of politicians at the North, a sentiment of opposition to the Administration; And whereas, this sentiment, and such a course as those who adhere to it are pursuing, is, at this critical juncture, nothing less than treachery to the Government and intended encouragement to covert traitors in the North and the armed traitors in our front: therefore,

Resolved, That we hold a cordial support and quick obedience to the Administration to be the first duty of all, and the only doorway out of these troublous times; therefore we earnestly entreat all citizens and all soldiers to support heartily and obey with alacrity all laws and orders coming from those charged with the administration of our government.

Resolved, That we recognize the fearful struggle the country is now engaged in as a struggle of freedom against slavery; right against wrong; of God against Satan; and we hold those who are against the Administration as against the Government, against right, against the Constitution and the glorious liberties of which it is the guarantee; and, we brand them as traitors, while we assure them of our unmitigated hatred and contempt.

Resolved, That the Emancipation Proclamation and the conscription act—those measures most odious to insidious peace men, copperheads and traitors under other titles—meet with our hearty approval, as measures dictated by the best administrative wisdom and firmness for the honest purpose and in the earnest effort to suppress rebellion, and save to posterity our noble republican government.

Resolved, That the lying reports spread broadcast throughout the land, that the army of which we have the honor to form a part, is demoralized and clamoring for peace, are but the base utterances of traitorous tongues, doing our gallant comrades in the field the grossest injustice.

Resolved, That we are ready and willing to put forth every effort, endure every species of hardship and fatigue—do anything and everything required to suppress the accursed war now being waged against us; that we have the fullest confidence in the present administration and generals over us, and which we are immediately connected.

Resolved, That we will never give up the noble cause in which we are now engaged until under the good guidance of kind Providence, treason and rebellion shall be banished from the Union of States, when the old flag, doubly dear from its double baptism in the best blood of our land shall again wave proudly over all.

The above resolutions were offered to the 149th Penna. Bucktails, by Lt. Col. W. Dwight commanding at dress parade, March 18th inst., and were unanimously adopted by the regiment. Speeches, appropriate and becoming the times, were made by Col. Dwight, Capts. John C. Johnson, Brice X. Clark, E. S. Osborne and others, the greatest enthusiasm prevailing.

The regiment, numbering 795 rank and file, is eager for the decisive blow for the nation's honor and freemen's vindication, at any peril of life or fortune.

D. ALLEN,
Serg't. Major, 149th P. V.

THE NEW JERSEY SOLDIERS ON THE ACTION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Camp of the 11th N. J. Vol's
Below Falmouth, Va., Mar. 10.

Whereas, The Legislature of our native State, a State hallowed by the remembrance of the battles of Princeton, Trenton and Monmouth, fields stained by the blood of our forefathers in the establishment of our Government, has sought to tarnish its high honor, and bring upon it disgrace, by the passage of resolutions tending to a dishonorable peace with armed rebels seeking to destroy our great and beneficient Government, the best ever designed for the happiness of the many; and,

Whereas, We, her sons, members of the 11th regiment New Jersey Volunteers, citizens representing every section of the State, have left our homes to endure the fatigues, privations and dangers incident to a soldier's life, in order to maintain our Republic in its integrity, willing to sacrifice our lives to that object, fully recognizing the impropriety of a soldier's discussion of the legislative functions of the State, yet deeming it due to ourselves, that the voice of this State should not, through its legislature, by wicked men seek its dishonor; therefore,

Resolved, That the Union of the States is the only guarantee for the preservation of our liberties and independence, and that the war for the maintenance of that Union commands now, as it ever has done, our best efforts and our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That we consider the passage, or even the introduction of the so-called Peace Resolutions as wicked, weak and cowardly, tending to aid by their sympathy the rebels seeking to destroy the Republic.

Resolved, That we regard as traitors alike the foe in arms and the secret enemies of our Government, who, at home, foment disaffection and strive to destroy confidence in our legally chosen rulers.

Resolved, That the reports spread broadcast throughout the North by secession sympathizers, prints and voices, that the army of which we esteem it a high honor to form a part, is demoralized and clamorous for peace on any terms, are the lying utterances of traitorous tongues, and do base injustice to our noble comrades who have never faltered in the great work, and are now not only willing but anxious to follow their gallant and chivalric leader against the strongholds of the enemy.

Resolved, That we put forth every effort, endure every fatigue, and shrink from no danger, until, under the gracious guidance of a kind Providence, every armed rebel shall be conquered, and traitors at home shall quake with fear, as the proud emblem of our national independence shall assert its power from North to South, and crush beneath its powerful folds all who dared to assail its honor, doubly hallowed by the memory of the patriotic dead.

(Signed by all the Officers of the Regiment.)

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE SECOND BRIGADE, GENERAL BAIRD'S DIVISION.

Headq'r. 2d Brig. Gen. Baird's Div.
Camp near Nashville, Tenn., Mar. 2,

At a meeting of the field, staff and line officers of this brigade, composed of the 84th Indiana, 92d Illinois; and 115th Illinois Regiments of Infantry, and the 9th Ohio Battery, held at brigade headquarters, the following preamble and resolutions were read, separately acted upon, and adopted with entire unanimity. The same were read at the head of each regiment and the battery, this afternoon, at dress parade, and acted upon by the soldiers, with a similar result:

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, We, the officers and soldiers of this command, have, in common with our comrades in arms, cheerfully periled our lives and every earthly interest, to save to ourselves and to our posterity a country and a Government, the same which in historic times, were bought with blood, and established by that quality of wisdom which, though human, seems divine; and

Whereas, A number of intriguing demagogues at home have recently, by word and act, sought to create disaffection among us, block the wheels of wise legislation, excite discontent in the public mind, and, in every way, to baffle all earnest efforts to conquer the rebels; therefore,

Resolved, That we hold in utter detestation that clique of miscreants in the loyal States, who, under the garb of assumed loyalty, use the stolen revenue of arch treason to excite petty treason in their own communities, who have no censures, save for the officers of our government—no complaints, save that energetic measures are employed to crush the rebellion—no aspirations, save to embarrass our Executive and Legislative Departments, and engender mutinies in our armies—and no hopes, save for an ignoble peace and the substantial triumph of the rebels; that we regard them as enemies to our country and mankind, who, to accomplish their hellish purposes, would not hesitate to blot forever from the hopes of man the cherished thought of self-government; and that they merit the scorn of all loyal citizens and true-hearted soldiers, combining, as they do, the deep guilt of the traitor with the essential meanness of the coward.

Resolved, That, despite the frenzied efforts of our foes before us and the despicable intrigues of our other foes behind us, we will abate not one jot of faith or hope; but, believing the maintenance of our government is worth all the cost expended in its establishment, we emphatically assure all traitors at home, that not until we have undergone a seven years' struggle, (if need be,) will we cease this contest, and not until we have experienced such sufferings as were bravely endured at Valley Forge, will we begin to murmur. By all the sacrifices already made and hardships endured by us—by all the sufferings of our comrades in hospital and camp—by all the precious blood which has encrimsoned our Eastern and Western waters—by all the hearths made desolate, and heart strings rent asunder, because of this wicked rebellion—we do solemnly pledge our honor as Americans and soldiers to see this contest through to a successful issue, or yield up our lives a willing sacrifice to our country's weal.

Resolved, That we are utterly opposed to hostilities until our glorious flag of thirty-four stars waves triumphantly from the dome of every Capitol in our land.

Resolved, That we fully and unequivocally endorse the policy of our civil rulers, in using all necessary means to strike decisive blows at the unholy rebellion, and to bring the war to a speedy, sure and glorious termination, so that traitors in the South may meet with deserved punishment, and damnable traitors in the North may be brought to a terrible justice, "that hemp be not created in vain."

Resolved, That to the loyal millions who encourage us in our efforts, who sympathize with us in our hardships, and who rejoice with us in the successes of our armies, we tender such heartfelt gratitude as soldiers, facing a hostile foe only can feel.

Resolved, That to Governor Tod of Ohio, Governor Morton of Indiana, and Governor Yates, of Illinois, we extend our hearty thanks for their ceaseless labors in behalf of the soldiers from their respective States.

The Rebel General Stuart and his Surroundings.—A correspondent of the Fayetteville (N. C.) Observer, writing from Fredericksburg, says: "I was at Gen. Stuart's headquarters to-day, and saw him eating some hard crackers and fat bacon. Gen Stuart is a flashy, dashy, fancy, fast man, though by no means foppish, harum-scarum, or reckless. He is very free, sociable, agreeable, and lively, and is a gentleman of high-toned accomplishments and rare genius. He is of more than ordinary size, some thirty years old, very handsome, fair complexion, with bright beaming eyes, of quick perception and deep expression. His dress and appearance correspond well with the rest of his character.—He has several old and fantastic characters with him and on his staff. His cook is a Frenchman from one of the cafe houses in Paris, a ventriloquist and comical genius, and the principal business man in his office is a Prussian, a man of education, distinction, and wit."

The Fort Jackson Mutineers.—The following paragraph is from the Vicksburg Whig of the 7th:

"Three of the Fort Jackson mutineers were shot here yesterday.—Their names were: Sergt. W. H. Brown, company D, First Regiment Louisiana Heavy Artillery; and Dennis Kean and Thomas Graham, of company B, same regiment. These mutinied at Fort Jackson on the 27th of April last, and went over to the enemy's vessels, giving them, of course, information as to our strength, condition, &c. At the fight on Bayou des Allemands, some time afterwards, they were taken prisoners and brought here to be exchanged as members of a Vermont regiment.—They were immediately recognized by the regiment to which they originally belonged, and lodged in jail.—Their fate, though hard was nevertheless just.

Prices at Richmond.—Gen. Dix, in a letter dated at Fortress Monroe, states the following as the prices of certain articles of provisions and clothing at Richmond, as communicated by a person lately from that place: Beef, per pound, 81,15; butter, per pound, 83; bacon, 81,50; tea, none to be had except at fabulous prices; coffee, do.; eggs, per dozen, 82; ready-made coat from 880 to 8100; soft wool hat from 825 to 830; an ordinary pair of boots 860.

The New Conscription Law---How it will be Enforced

The appointment of provost marshals throughout the United States to carry out the enrollment bill will be made as rapidly as possible. There will be one for every Congressional district, and when the district is very large two or three will be appointed, as the case may require. In addition for each district, there will also be one civilian and one surgeon, to be paid as assistant surgeon of cavalry, except the rations, etc., leaving about $113 per month. This will constitute the enrolling board, whose duty it is to divide each district into two sub-divisions, and to appoint for each an enrolling officer, whose special duty it will be to make the enrollment.

Immediately after his appointment, the enrolling officer of each sub-district is to proceed to make the enrollment in such manner that each class shall be enrolled separately, and the age of the person enrolled is to be set down on the list as it will be on the first day of July succeeding the date of the enrollment. That is, if any person is not now twenty, but will be on the first of July next, he is to be placed on the list; or if any married man is not thirty-five now but will be on the first of July next, he is not to go in the first class, but in the second class; or if any person liable to duty is not now forty-five years of age, but will be on the first day of July next, he is not to be placed on the list at all.

All persons enrolled are to be subject to military duty for two years from the first day of July after the enrollment, and if call into the service shall continue during the rebellion, but not to exceed three years. But the persons of the second class shall not, in any district, be called into the service of the United States until those of the first class shall have been called. Whenever the President shall make a requisition, he is authorized to assign to each district the number of men to be furnished and then the enrolling board shall make a draft of the required number, and fifty per cent. additional, and shall make a complete roll in the order in which the names are drawn. The drafted men are to stand on the same footing with the three years volunteers in respect to advance pay and bounties as now provided by law; and the President, in assigning the required number to each district, is authorized to equalize the numbers already furnished by the district during the war.

After the draft is made each person whose name is drawn is to be notified in writing within ten days, and he is to repair to a designated place of rendezvous; but before the day of assembling he may furnish a substitute, or he may pay to such person as the Secretary of War shall select, a sum of money in lieu of a substitute, which sum is to be made uniform by a general order, and is not to exceed three hundred dollars. Every person failing to report in person, or by procuring a substitute, or by paying the stipulated sum, is to be deemed a deserter.

Many persons are still of the opinion that the conscription act, as passed by the last Congress, is the same as that enforced by the rebels, which is not so, as there is a wide [illegible] The rebels act takes all [illegible] tween certain ages, leaving [illegible] hind, while our bill merely takes the required quota out of the whole number enrolled. This there might be in one district 10,000 persons between the ages of twenty and thirty-five enrolled are liable to military duty, and the quota required might be only two or three thousand, which would still leave the majority at home. The rebels, on the contrary, take all they can lay hands upon whether old or young. As Pennsylvania has already furnished for the war more troops than any other State, and, as some attention is now being paid to colored enlistments, for which it is stated the Governor will give due credit, there is yet hope that, with proper exertions, our State may escape the draft, if a call for more men is issued.

Plenty of Bullion.—It is stated that the Secretary of the Treasury will not, in any event, come into the market as a purchaser of gold, as he is provided with sufficient bullion to meet all expected demands. The receipts for customs will be more than enough to pay the interest on the public debt.

John Minor Botts.—A gentleman who conversed recently with Hon. John Minor Botts says that, though taking no part in favor of the Federal Government he is nevertheless a staunch friend of the Union, and lives in hopes of a speedy restoration of its authority all over the land.

☞ Many persons have their best society in their own heart and souls—the purest memories of earth and sweetest hopes of heaven: there loneliness is not solitude.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.—No announcement of name will, hereafter, be made without payment of Two DOLLARS—excepting Coroner, Auditor, &c., which will be ONE DOLLAR.

☞ We received the proceedings of a Union League meeting held in the Presbyterian Church, at Hookstown, on the 28th ult., but owing to the late hour which they were handed in we are compelled to delay their publication until next week.

☞ THE editor of the Star, in his last issue, publishes an article in which it is stated that the loyal members of our State Senate refused the Senate Chamber to Gen. George B. M'Clellan to speak. Gen. M'Clellan never made application for the Senate Chamber for any purpose, nor any one for him. He is no speaker, neither does he pretend to be. But the loyal men of the Senate did vote to give him the use of the Chamber any time he might desire it. We therefore say that the editor of the Star wilfully and deliberately lies in the publication of this article. More than that, he has the cool and mean impudence to ask us to publish his traitorous falsehoods.

Supplement to the Sheets-Barker Venue Case.

In looking over the Pittsburgh Chronicle of last Wednesday, we were astonished at reading a letter published therein, written from Harrisburg, over the signature "SNAP," in which the far-famed and, we may safely add, disreputably notorious Sheets-Barker case, is again brought to public notice, and almost universal disgust. Why this loathsome subject should be dragged from its last Legislative hiding place, to be again the theme of public view, is more than we are at present prepared to account for. Mr. "SNAP," the correspondent of the Chronicle, in his letter to which we ing language,

Mr. Connell read in place a supplement to the act passed some time since changing the venue of the case of the celebrated Barker family from Beaver county to Washington. It seems that the indictment for perjury is to be dropped, to which the act already passed to change the venue applies, and an indictment for misdemeanor is to be found by the next Grand Jury which meets in Beaver county. This supplement is to anticipate such an indictment, and give the defendants the same change of venue to the prospective indictment as was given in the case of the one already found. The allegation is that the people of Beaver county are now more excited than ever, and that the excitement being on the increase, there is more necessity for a change of venue for the trial of the proposed indictment than in the former case.—It is said one of the county newspapers is constantly inflaming the public mind against the defendants.

This fellow "SNAP" once lived in Beaver county, and is known to many of our readers. It would be bootless to give his name on this occasion, but we cannot allow him or any other hired scribbler to falsify the facts, without due exposure of his falsehoods, and an incidental rebuke of the venal, lying proclivities of the author.

"SNAP" seems to go it blind, and foolishly says the "indictment for perjury is to be dropped," and "an indictment for misdemeanor is to be found by the next Grand Jury which meets in Beaver county." And afterwards goes on to say: "This supplement is to anticipate such an indictment, and give the defendants the same change of venue to the prospective indictment as was given to the case of the one already found." Such an exemplification of stupid nonsense has seldom been allowed to crawl into the columns of a respectable newspaper. No indictment for "perjury" was ever found against the Barker family, or any portion of them; and no man of common sense, who had not in some reason-dethroning 'SNAPS' shortly before, would have ever uttered such evidence of positive insanity. Who in Beaver county ever heard of dropping the indictment as found—not for "perjury," but for being "accessaries after the fact to the murder of John Ansley," against Mrs. Barker and others?

But if it be so that Mr. Connell, of the Senate, in the plenitude of his impertinent and unscrupulous spirit of intermeddling in matters with which he has no business, has got up such grand concentions of legislative power as to induce, in his infatuated mind, the belief that he and his compeers can legislate for prospective indictments, why does he not make short work of the whole concern, and at once acquit the parties named up to the present time, and then take the whole Barker establishment into his special care and carry them to "prospective" and everlasting exemption from all pains and penalties in this world and the world to come?

"SNAP" as is seen by the above extract from his letter, revamps the old and stale lies that "the people of Beaver county are now more excited than ever," and that one of the county newspapers is constantly inflaming the public mind against the defendants.

It is scarcely proper to seriously dwell on such false representations now, as we have had occasion heretofore to expose these most contemptible and lying charges made against the people of Beaver county, and the course of this paper on the subject of the Sheets-Barker case.

But when we find Mr. Connell or Mr. "Snap" or Mr. anybody else so persistently outraging truth and common decency, and that amenity and courtesy due from one man to another, and from the representative of one portion of the State to another portion of the same State, we feel bound, as the editor of a public journal to put such men or beings in their proper position before our readers.

Under this obligation and sense of duty we therefore emphatically say that the course of Mr. Connell, of the Senate, in the Barker case has been characterized by a wanton disregard of truth, which we had not expected of him; but finding him in such position, willingly and against light, we will deal with him as he deserves—And as to "Snap," we have only to say to the rotund scribbler, or hired penny-a-liner, be careful not to get into such "Snaps" as the one you wrote about—because exposure and general execration in this locality and everywhere will inevitably be your just and richly merited reward for giving vent to such wholesale falsehoods.

"Copperheads."

Every man who is observant of passing events, and of things immediately around him, must be aware that there are "copperheads" of the worst and most venomous kind in our midst. By saying "copperheads" we do not wish to stigmatize as such the true and genuine Democrats, and we rejoice that we have many, very many as belong, or pretending to belong, to that or any other respectable party as are willing and desirous of uniting with Southern traitors to overthrow our Republican Government, and bring the people under the yoke of military bondage. We have a few such mean, sneaking and cowardly scoundrels in this county, who, when the public authorities thought it necessary and proper to arrest and imprison disloyal and dangerous men, were afraid to express their real sentiments; but now that the fear of arrest has been removed, to some extent, they have become bold and insolent. They talk of opposing the execution of the laws, and even of driving from power the men whom the people have chosen to administer the government. Now what we wish to say is, that soon these "copperheads" will be compelled from fear of the just indignation of the people, to eat their words, as they now eat dirt for Southern rebels and enemies of our government.

This rebellion will soon be crushed by the power of the Union armies, and the majesty of the laws fully asserted and maintained. Then these miserable creatures will deny their disloyalty, and endeavor to convince the people that they were always in favor of supporting the government and of putting down rebellion. That there may be no mistake about this matter, we would call upon organizations of loyal men in every township and election district, to make correct lists of the "copperheads" among them—that is, men who are now bawling out their opposition to the constituted authorities, opposing the execution of the laws, discouraging our patriotic and noble soldiers in the army, or in any way giving aid and comfort to the enemies armed against our government; and when full and correct lists of such "copperheads" are made, let them be preserved for future reference and publication.—Then the people will know who the men are who dare to lift their hands or voices against their country.

The Administration and the War.

We have seen it stated in a Western paper that a great mistake is made by some of our best men. In this matter we entirely agree. Some men honestly differ with the Administration as to its policy in regard to certain national measures. They do not believe in the Emancipation Proclamation, arguing themselves into a belief that it is unconstitutional, and wrong because it does not agree with their pre-conceived opinions upon the subject of slavery and the right of the States. Some of them admire certain Generals, and think that they ought to have supreme command; they cannot reconcile themselves to what they call arbitrary arrests, and many other matters of smaller importance. By sentiments like these, and after continually indulging themselves in finding fault with measures which do not suit there peculiar views, they are insensibly and inevitably led to array themselves with the party which is now opposed to the Administration in all its important war measure and national policy.

At first these men are probably honest in their views, but they are unconsciously hurried into counsels and views which are deadly to the preservation and existence of the Union which they pretend to love and venerate.

The natural result of this opposition to the constituted powers of our republican government should be considered.

We would ask of every man who possesses the smallest spark of patriotic feeling, is it not the aim of the Government as now constituted, to put down this rebellion? and has it not upon all occasions since the first moment it came into power, manifested the greatest zeal and energy to accomplish this great result? It is true some of its measures may not have been for the best; but who, even among the wisest and most ardently devoted to the Union, have not erred in their views as to the proper and necessary measure to put down the rebellion and punish treason? On the part of the constitutionally chosen President and his cabinet, what inducement can be imagined by any sane man that would prompt a policy hostile to the speedy restoration of peace and prosperity to our country and preserve its liberties? It is not only their highest duty under their solemn oaths they have taken to support, defend and maintain the constitution handed down from the foundation of the government, but it is certainly their highest interest as men, in the eyes of the present inhabitants of the world and of the future, to accomplish this great and holy purpose—If the end be accomplished; and the States now in armed rebellion against the government, and traitors who have banded together to destroy our government are crushed and put down, and yet no great or fundamental principle of our liberties taken away or seriously unimpaired, what we would ask, will any lover of his country care for the details or means of its accomplishment? Had the government been uniformly victorious in the field, no man could have been found who would have lifted his voice in censure of the course pursued. But the fact that it has not—that in its hands alone, as far as any earthly power is concerned, must rest the responsibility of solving this great and momentous question, should be sufficient reason for the general support of all loyal men, regardless of party considerations or minor differences of opinion, opposition to the Administration in this time of the Nation's trials and peril, is still more and more imperiling the safety of the Union and our final triumph, for the plain and simple reason that it weakens the moral strength of the Government at home and abroad; it corrupts the armed defenders of the Union; it gives encouragement and boldness to the miserable crew of traitors who are amongst us, and it nerves the army of the rebel hordes, who from the beginning have relied upon the divisions in the loyal States. These men have certainly made a great mistake; they speak and act as if it was more importance to the well being of the nation, and the cause of civil and religious liberty to oppose the measures of President Lincoln, than to oppose the vandal and sacrilegious hands that are endeavoring to pull down and utterly destroy the temple of the Republic, and build upon its ruins a military and crushing despotism. The paramount duty of every man is first for his country.—After its restoration and the reduction of those who oppose it, to obedience to the laws, it will be time to settle our political differences in a loyal and a constitutional way at the ballot box.

☞ THE Pennsylvania Legislature has fixed the 16th of April as the day of final adjournment. The sooner the better.

Loyalty vs. Disloyalty

We remember of reading in a good old book, "He that is not for us is against us," and since this doctrine is strictly true in a moral sense, it is equally as true when applied to all persons as members of Society, or to us as citizens of the United States.—There are but two classes in this country: the Patriot and the Traitor—and although the line between these is not so distinctly drawn as that which should separate the sheep from the goats, yet when we remember that by their fruits ye shall know them, it neither requires the eye of a prophet nor the hand of an artist to trace the line. Treason, in all its hatred forms, has reared its monster head in the South, menacing the priceless boon of Liberty bequeathed to us by our fathers. And although, we regard it as passing strange, yet it is nevertheless true, that we find in our midst the emmisaries of the leas's, some in the form of the old serpent who beguiled our first parent, others Judas-like, seeking the first opportunity to betray their country into the hands of the enemy for much less than thirty pieces of silver; and yet others whom we may properly style "copperheads," assuming the liberties of the press and the freedom of speech, are rehearsing the treasonable doctrines of Vallandigham and his co-conspirators, for the purpose of crippling the efforts of the Administration, to maintain the Constitution and laws of our country. There is said to be a time when "forbearance ceases to be a virtue." That time is certainly not far distant. Read over the infamous list of the members of the House of Representatives, who voted to refuse the use of their Hall to Gov. Andrew Johnston, because he happened to be a loyal anti-Breckinridge Democrat. Why do we receive so many letters from soldiers in the army, admonishing us to beware of traitors at home? Why is the flag of our country insulted? our Constitution reviled? law and order set at naught? Loyal men, rise in your might, and wherever treason has its lurking place, whether high or low, in Church or State, let it, with all its varieties, be banished from your borders into that exile "from whence there is no return."

☞ NEWLY ELECTED JUSTICES OF THE PEACE will remember that they must file written acceptance with the Prothonotary within thirty days from the time of election or else no commissions will be issued.

ATTENTION Co. "F."—There will be a meeting of the company at the Court House on Friday, April 10th, at 8 o'clock, A. M. All the members of the company are requested to be present. Those who have guns which they have not returned, are expected to return them on that day.
By order of the Captain,

CAMP OF 140TH REG. PA. VOL.,
Near Falmouth, Va.,
March 23d, 1863.

ARGUS: Your readers being deeply interested in the regiment I have the honor to command, I have thought it not improper to address you a few lines relative to its health and condition.

For three months we were stationed on the Northern Central Railroad, between York and Baltimore; and covering a distance of fourteen miles.—This period was in a great measure lost to us as to discipline and drill. We have been in our present position more than three months, a greater portion of which time the weather has been so inclement as to entirely interfere with drilling. Picket duty has been very onerous, a portion of the regiment being always thus engaged. Yet with all the disadvantages we have labored under, we flatter ourselves that we make quite a respectable appearance on parade, and hope that we will not fail in the hour of need. The health of the regiment has been excellent, comparatively few deaths have occurred—but two out of the three hundred men from Beaver county.

We arrived here immediately after the battle of Fredericksburg, and found the army in the condition naturally resulting from defeat. It had a depressing influence upon the minds of the men of this regiment; but all this has long since passed away.—There, probably, never was an army in finer spirits and condition than the "Army of the Potomac."

The passage of the Enrollment Act, and other measures of Congress, placing the necessary power in the hands of the President to crush out, speedily and forever, rebellion and treason, whether in arms or at home, has given new energy and hope to the soldier.

We read with unbounded delight of the great gatherings of loyal men, of all parties, in the North, proclaiming their fealty to the government, and their unconquerable determination to sustain it until the last "armed foe expires," or lays down his arms in submission.

I observe there are still some "copperheads" who endeavor to thwart the Government in every effort to save itself from death. It would be well for the sneaking cowards and tories to take heed and be admonished by the signs of the times.

Yours, etc.,
R. P. ROBERTS.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

HARRISBURG, Mar. 25, 1863.

MR. EDITOR:—Our city election resulted in the choice of Roumfort, the Davis candidate, by some 40 majority. This is a sad rebuke to these fellows. Their majority is cut down from 280 to 40. A few more victories and they are done. Still so elated were some of them that in their zeal they shouted for Davis and Roumfort.

The Davis democrats of the Legislature are becoming alarmed at what they have done. They are arranging for an adjourned session hoping that they may be able to do something to wipe out their past infamy. Strange to say we have some Republicans green enough or hard enough to help them on.

The Bounty bill is fought desperately by the Kaines, Pattons, Glenns, Rex and such men. But I hope it will pass. The Calahan swindle has passed both Houses. A prominent man in the Senate very liberally talked and voted and engineered it through. If the Daily Record is not improved his friends may see his speech. Sometimes, however, speeches are revised, that is one never uttered is substituted by the member for the real one. This is done under pretence of writing the speech out fully.

The good people of Philadelphia were terribly excited lately by hearing that their honest representatives had legislated away all control of the city over Passenger railways. This Bill was hurried through both Houses on the representation of city members that the councils, solicitor, &c., were all satisfied. When the rascality was discovered and denounced, and a resolution offered requesting the Governor to return the bill, not a single signer dare raise his voice in favor of the swindle, and the resolution passed unanimously. The Governor has returned the bill.

I intimated in one of my letters early in the session that this House was inferior to the last one. Now every body thinks so that thinks at all on the subject.

The Bank committee hold on to the Bills with the clutch of a miser, but they might as well be honest. Banks will not pay this session. Mark that.

The best thing this Legislature could do, would be to adjourn, go home and repent of their sins; perhaps it is not too late.

The Appropriation bill is in the Senate That body complained that it was waiting on the House some weeks for that Bill. But it seems that delay and inaction is not confined to the House.

The signs of the times are brighter. Gold is falling. It is now below 50 per cent. discount. Our Greenbacks in Richmond are $1,80. Jay Cook & Co., of Philadelphia, are receiving an average of $700,000 per day in Greenbacks in exchange for the new loan. These are facts, whilst your Kaines, Glenns and such base politicians are daily decrying the same notes asserting that they are worthless. Surely they [illegible] under a great mistake.

The great heart of the nation is yet sound to the core. The day-star of victory is clearly visible above the horizon. Soon you will hear many of those new prating of southern rights out Herod Herod in their professions of eternal love, past, present and future, for the Union. A. B. C.

Judge Ketcham.

In the list of nominations confirmed by the United States Senate, we see the name of W. W. Ketcham, of Pennsylvania, to be Associate Justice of the United States Court in Nebraska Territory. It is an office Mr. Ketcham will fill with usefulness to the country and credit to himself, if he shall conclude to accept it. It was not an appointment of his seeking, and the first information he had of it was the visit of friends to announce its confirmation.

We shall certainly regret to lose Mr. Ketcham from Luzerne, and shall only be pleased with the selection if inclination and duty shall clearly unite in prompting his acceptance.—Wilks-Barre Record of the Times.

☞ Deserters are returning to the army under the President's proclamation, and is rapidly increasing as the first of April approaches. It is estimated upon a basis of careful returns that the army of the Potomac is receiving accessions from this source at the rate of two or three regiments a week.

HEADQUARTERS, 136th REG. PA. V.
Camp Bayne, March 25, '63.

EDITOR ARGUS:—This forenoon the assembly was beat by the band of the 136th Pa. Vols., in front of the Colonel's Headquarters. Both officers and men came forward, and presently nearly seven hundred Pennsylvanians were to be seen "in mass meeting assembled."

On motion, Col. T. M. Bayne was called to the Chair. After stating the object of the meeting to be the expression of the opinions of all present concerning the war for the Union, and the denunciation of traitors and those who sympathise with them, exhorted a free and untrammeled expression of opinion. Both officers and privates were invited to say their say without intimidation or fear.—After the Colonel concluded his address, on motion of Capt. A. N. Rodgers the following gentlemen were elected Vice Presidents.

Lieut. Col. Isaac Wright, Major Chas. Ryan, Dr. C. A. D. Redlick, Capt. E. J. Seibert and Capt. H. W. Larimer.

The Vice Presidents having taken their seats, it was moved that Lieuts. A. C. Lindsay and Sam. Dickey act as Secretaries.

On motion of Capt. W. N. Monies a committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the Meeting.

The Chairman announced the following committee: Capts. W. N. Monies, J. R. Smith, S. D. Phillips, David Evans, John J. Mitchell.

During the absence of the committee, Lieut. Col. Isaac Wright, Lieuts. D. Hinkwright, A. B. Tate, Closs Bailey and Capt. J. J. Mitchell made brief addresses to the meeting. The first three named gentlemen avowed themselves as life-long Democrats, but as opposed to any and every party or faction, not in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war. They denounced the "copperheads" in the strongest terms, and avowed their determination to oppose any peace except a conquered peace.

Capt. Mitchell made an eloquent speech, and denounced the "copperheads" in terms which elicited loud shouts of approbation; indeed all the speeches were frequently applauded.

The Union now and forever, one and inseparable," was the motto subscribed to by all present.

The committee after a short absence, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were accepted and adopted, with a tremendous acclamation:

WHEREAS, Sympathizers with treason, who favor compromise with the infamous Rebellion now threatening our liberties with destruction, are sedulously and insidiously circulating the report that the Potomac Army is demoralized—that the officers and men believe that the war has been perverted from its original purpose into a crusade against slavery—and that the army has lost confidence in the administration and the leaders whom President Lincoln has placed over us.

WHEREAS, We regard these reports as aspertions upon our good name, and in derogation of the patriotic motives which induced us to enlist under the flag of our country; and,

WHEREAS, We also regard these reports as calculated to frustrate the efforts of the Government to crush the Rebellion; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the officers and men of the 136 Pa. Vols. have an abiding faith in President Lincoln and his Cabinet, believing that they have endeavored to discharge these duties with an eye single to the welfare of our nation.

Resolved, That we have confidence in the patriotism and military ability of Gen J. Hooker, and that we will fight under him or any other General who is placed over us, believing that obedience to our commander is our first and most important duty.

Resolved, That all those who oppose the prosecution of the war are traitors at heart; that they deserve the execration and scorn of the civilized world; and that their asservations, viz: the war is not conducted upon the principles it ought to be, is a mere pretext calculated to delude and enslave.

Resolved, That we are unchangably opposed to any peace save one brought about by the unconditional surrender of the Rebels now in arms to the United States Government; that we are in favor of the prosecution of the war to the bitter end, and for this purpose we "pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

Resolved, That we appreciate that devoted patriotism which rises above party and gives to our Government its undivided support in the prosecution of the war, and that we hold in greater contempt the Northern man who sympathizes with treason, than the arch-traitor Jeff. Davis himself.

Resolved, That the Potomac Army is in an excellent state of discipline—better than ever before.

Resolved, That we tender Governor Curtin, Adjutant General Russell, and Deputy Secretary Thomas our sincere thanks for the kindly solicitude with which they have watched the progress of Pennsylvania Soldiers, and the interest they have taken in their welfare and comfort.

If the heart of the country beat in unison with the heart of the Potomac Army, peace propositions and those so justly and appropriately named "copperheads," would be compelled to take up their abode away down South of Mason and Dixon's line. The Potomac Army knows what it is fighting for. It is composed of men of brains, and after enduring all the hardships and privations incidental to a soldier's life, that patriotism that devotion to free institutions which characterizes the true patriot lives in its heart, and will continue to live, till every traitor if needs be is made to bite the dust.

F.

MURFREESBORO, March 29.—It is certain that no rebel infantry has passed either flank of this army into Kentucky, and therefore the Kentucky panic is useless.

There is reason to believe that Van Dorn, with 8,000 mounted infantry and cavalry, has moved to strike Cumberland river, below Clarksville, to intercept navigation.

We have trustworthy information that the rebels are concentrating exclusively on this front to resist Gen. Rosecrans' advance, and not to attack him.

They are no less than 60,000 strong, and fortified an Tullahoma, Stevenson and Bridgeport.

There are no troops at Chattanooga.

No infantry have appeared at Knoxville.

Provisions are being moved from Virginia to Tullahoma. There is no doubt that the rebels are suffering for want of provisions.

Joe Johnston's headquarters are at Atlanta, Georgia.

Gen. Bragg is in command of the army, and his headquarters are at Tullahoma.

CINCINNATI, March 30.—The rebel raid into Kentucky has proved a failure.

A Murfreesboro special says the rebels report 15,000 Federals at Savannah, Tenn., that Grenada is in our possession; that Gen. Grant's forces are surrounding Vicksburg, and that the Anderson Pennsylvania Cavalry Troop have been mustered out of the service.

The Montgomery Advertiser contains a patriotic appeal from Yancey, Clay, Curry, and other rebel Congressmen of Alabama, to the Southern people to plant corn, and raise hogs and beef.

The reports, touching the scanty supplies of the rebels are well confirmed.

The Advertiser has an official advertisement of the rebel Commissary, appealing to the public for food and supplies of bacon, for which he has been authorized to pay fifty cents per pound or give one and a half pounds of sugar for one pound of bacon.

The people of East Tennessee are in a starving condition. Flour is fifty-five dollars per barrel at Knoxville.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, Mar. 29.—All quiet over the river.

The main body of the enemy lies fifteen miles back of Fredericksburg.

It is ascertained by reports of deserters that the rebel army is suffering terribly for want of supplies. The daily ration has been reduced to half a pound of flour and a quarter pound of meat.

A strong wind is blowing, and the roads are rapidly drying up.

NEW YORK, March 30.—A letter from Hilton Head, dated 25th inst. says: This morning all the Monitors, six in number, left this point, together with several wooden gunboats and a half dozen schooners.

The Ericsson has just arrived here with a floating nondescript in tow. She is called 'the devil,' and her purpose is understood to be to clear the channel of torpedoes and other obstructions.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 28.—Last Sabbath, several clergymen of Norfolk gave notice that the churches would be open on Friday, the 27th, for service in conformity with Davis' proclamation. The churches accordingly were opened, but as worshipers began to congregate, they found a guard of Union soldiers at the church doors, consequently no services were allowed.

A Richmond paper says Judge Merideth of the Circuit Court, decided that every citizen of Maryland, and every foreigner, who ever enlisted in their army, no matter for how short a time, acquired a domicile, and were therefore liable to conscription if between 18 and 45.

The hull and machinery of the steamer Pennsylvania, burned three years ago on James river, has been raised and passed here last evening for Baltimore.

An officer who deserted from the rebel ranks arrived in Norfolk yesterday and has reports that the rebels are evacuating Richmond as fast as possible for them to do it quietly. The report is not fully credited.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Sunday Mercury has a special Cairo dispatch to the effect that the rise in the Mississippi has overflowed the peninsula, and that "there are fifteen feet water in Vicksburg Cut Off. A fleet of six iron clads and twenty transports are said to have passed through, carrying fifteen thousand men; they are to join Admiral Farragut, and though the object is kept a secret, it is thought that they will attack Port Hudson.

Another dispatch says: A report has been received announcing the complete success of the expedition under Gens. Ross and Quinby and Admiral Porter. It is said that the rebel Fort Greenwood has been captured with all the troops. No particulars are given.

AWARD OF MEDALS TO SOLDIERS.—The party of Ohio soldiers recently from the Southern barbarians, and whose depositions have been taken by Judge Advocate-General Holt, were on Wednesday by appointment introduced to the Secretary of War by Gen. Hitchcock. After complimenting them upon their fortitude and devotion to the Union, the Secretary presented to private Jacob Parrott, the boy who received a hundred lashes on his bare back without flinching, the first medal given under the recent act of Congress authorizing the presentation of medals to soldiers for meritorious services.

☞ A Hogshead of Tobacco was sold in Newport, Ky., Saturday, at the extraordinary price of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per one hundred pounds.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—Parson Brownlow has arrived here from Tennessee and reports the rebels concentrating all the infantry formerly in East Tennessee at Tullahoma, while the Cavalry made a diversion in East Kentucky, hoping to draw a force from Rosecrans. Reinforcements are arriving daily at Tullahoma from Virginia.

Gen. Gilmore crossed the Kentucky river in force yesterday, recaptured Danville, and is driving the rebels in the direction of Crab Orchard.

CAIRO, March 27.—Last Saturday night another barge, containing one thousand bushes of coal, floated past the Batteries of Vicksburg for the use of Admiral Farragut's fleet.

The Memphis Bulletin of Wednesday says that three of Admiral Porter's fleet reached the Yazoo river by the Sunflower route, and reached Greenwood.

The Bulletin further says that our forces above Greenwood had undertaken to force a passage, and were returning when they met General Quinby's division en route to reinforce them. A conference was held, the result of which was unknown, but it was thought that in consequence of the success of the new route, the whole force would return.

Advices from New Orleans state that on the approach of Gen. Banks' forces the rebels retired to Port Hudson.

Col. Clark, of Banks' staff was severely wounded in the leg while reconnoitering. The man who shot him was subsequently killed.

Gen. Banks was in New Orleans on the 23d. On the return of the army to Baton Rouge he issued a general order, announcing that the entire object of the expedition was accomplished, and that it was a complete success.

The movement is understood to have been a mere diversion, to enable Admiral Farragut's fleet to pass the batteries, and not intended for the reduction of Port Hudson.

Our fleet are only a few miles be Vond Baton Rouge, the gunboat Essex being nearer Port Hudson. The rebel force there is said to be twenty thousand.

There are two things with which soldiers in the field are especially pleased. 1st. The stringent orders issued concerning deserters, and the certainty that the days of immunity for stragglers, of all grades, in forth-coming communities, are over, and that summary punishments will be inflicted. 2. The Conscription. The old soldiers did not like the extravagant money business, last fall, and now look to the Conscription as offering them a certainty of all the reinforcements that may be required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater, sole agent for this County.

THE SOLDIER'S FRIEND!

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL-HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at stands unequalled; removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Do not put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSENESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH. Therefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years. Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box: the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized World, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5,00; three copies, one year, $5,00; Five Copies, One Year, $8,00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15,00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28,00.

Subscription not paid within the year, $2,50.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing, or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared, or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIDGEPORT, MASS., 30th Dec., 1858.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. The constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. HENRY KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTMORY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO BRELEY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around as bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all most. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Piles arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
